

Families

Dear Educators,

There are all different kinds of families. Help your students celebrate diversity by delving further into FAMILIES with the following discussion questions aligned with Common Core State Standards and the reproducible on the reverse.

1. Create a main idea and detail chart using evidence from the text. RI.K-1.1, 2
2. What type of book is FAMILIES? Is it fiction or nonfiction? How do you know? Why do you think Shelley Rotner and Sheila M. Kelly wrote this book? (author's purpose) RI.K-1.5
3. Discuss how the photographs in the book relate to the words and the message. RI.K-1.6, 7
4. Using the accompanying worksheet, have students write a sentence and draw a picture about their family. W.K-1.3, 8

Families

BY Shelley Rotner & Sheila M. Kelly
FULL-COLOR PHOTOGRAPHS BY Shelley Rotner

978-0-8234-3053-6 • Ages 3-6
E-book available

My Family

Directions: Draw a picture and write a sentence about your family.

My Family is _____

Families

BY Shelley Rotner & Sheila M. Kelly
FULL-COLOR PHOTOGRAPHS BY Shelley Rotner

978-0-8234-3053-6 • Ages 3-6
E-book available