THE STORY OF PASSOVER: THE FOUR CUPS

“Everyone at the seder gets to drink four cups of wine or grape juice. When the talk of the ten plagues begins, some wine is spilled in memory of the Egyptians who died so the Children of Israel could be free.”

—from The Story of Passover

Draw four things on the cups that make you feel free and happy.

Draw you and your family and friends on the reverse side of the picture of the Red Sea on this sheet. To see yourself walk through the divided Red Sea as the Children of Israel did, fold the paper in thirds with the Red Sea on the outside and open the two side flaps.
