BEATRICE BLY isn't just a spy. She's a super spy. She knows all the rules. She sneaks. She observes. Clever and determined, Beatrice Bly will win over young sleuths, teaching them problem-solving and deduction skills as they scramble to figure out the case alongside her.

What's Included:

- Observe and Write Down Everything!
- A Sticky Situation!
- The Buzz of the School!
- Have a Backup Plan!
- Good Spies Never Leave a Mission Unfinished!

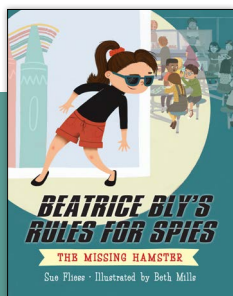

Meet The Creators!

SUE FLIESS is the author of over 35 children's books, including The Princess and the Petri Dish, Flash and Gleam, How to Find a Unicorn, Ninja Camp, numerous Little Golden Books, and more. As a kid, she occasionally spied on her parents, but was never as talented as Beatrice. Today she is sometimes known to sneak downstairs at night to eat the last piece of cake. Sue lives in Northern Virginia with her family and two dogs, and loves to travel, write, and read. Visit her website at www.suefliess.com.

BETH MILLS is an illustrator who also occasionally writes things. She is from Texas and says "ya'all" and "howdy" unironically. She enjoys all kinds of art, reads voraciously, and spends as much time as possible creating or illustrating stories. Beth's favorite things to draw are quirky characters, animals in clothes, and monsters. Beth's favorite thing to write is funny fiction. Her least favorite thing to write is her bio. You can learn more about Beth at www.beth-mills.com.

Have a Backup Plan!

One of Beatrice Bly's rules for spies is to always have a backup plan. You can write your plan in invisible ink for super-secret spy messages!

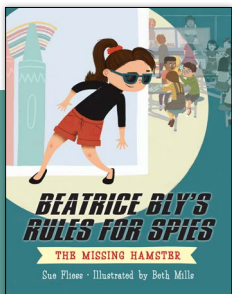

You will need:

- A white crayon
- A paintbrush
- Watercolor paint
- White paper
- A cup of water

Instructions:

Write your secret message on the paper with the white crayon. Press down hard! When you're ready to reveal it, dip your brush in the water. Use the paint to paint all over the page. The crayon will stay white, making your invisible message appear!

Good Spies Never Leave a Mission Unfinished!

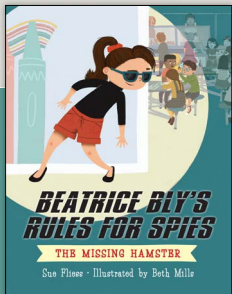

Go on your own find-it mission!

Being as good a spy as Beatrice takes training.

Instructions:

- Pick a toy for a friend or family member to hide somewhere in a room. No peeking!
- Once the toy is hidden, your mission is to find it!
- Look all over the room.
- Make sure to check down low, up high, and behind everything.
- Once you've found it, switch jobs.
- You hide, and your partner seeks!
