

HEAD IN THE CLOUDS

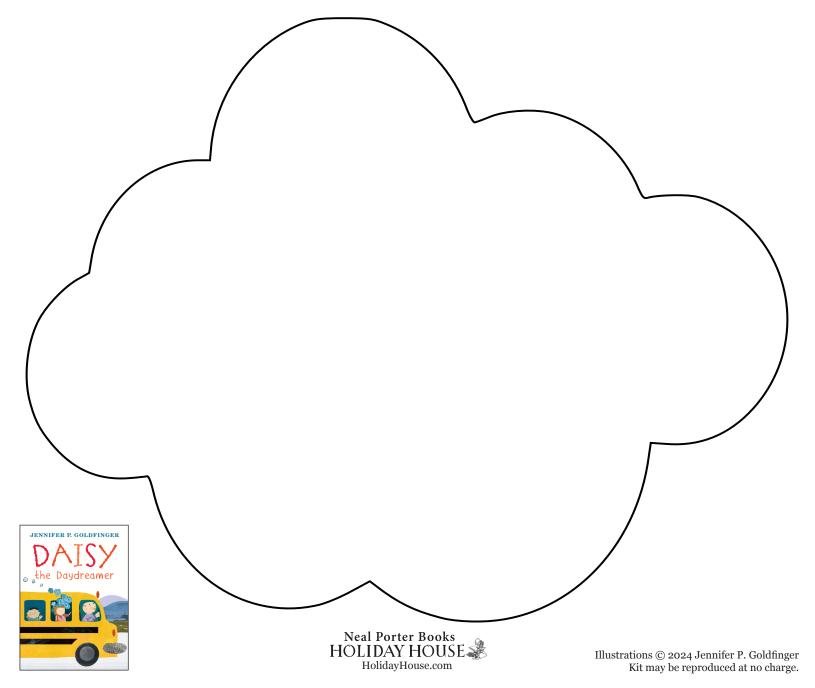

Use these daydreaming prompts to spark your creativity! Pick a prompt, and with your eyes closed, take a few minutes to imagine yourself in that scenario. Then, in the thought bubble below, draw what you saw in your head.

Lyou Daydreamer.

Imagine it snowed overnight. How would you spend the next day having fun in the snow?

You're a superhero for the day. What superpower would you have? What would you do with that superpower?

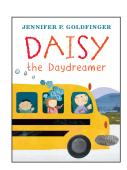

You get to make a new national holiday. What is it about, and how do you celebrate?

AQUARIUM ARTIST

If you were the official artist at the aquarium like Daisy, what would you draw? In the space below, draw something that would inspire you at the aquarium.

DOODLE ART

Get creative while staying focused with this fun doodle activity!

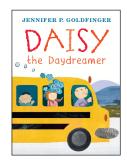

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- Paper or white cardstock
- Black marker
- · Colorful crayons, markers, or watercolor paints

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. On a blank sheet of paper or cardstock, draw a large, loopy doodle to cover the entire surface. Try to make the loops large enough to fill in later.
- 2. Using the crayons, markers, or watercolors, color in the different sections! You can make each section a different color. Or alternate just a few colors, making sure to have each space be touching a different color. Or you can draw a different doodle or design in each space. The sky's the limit!

DRAWING CHALLENGES

Want to get outside of your creativity box? Try some of these drawing challenges to tap into your inner artist!

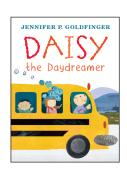

Create a drawing only using one shape. For example, draw with only triangles.

Draw using your nondominant hand. Can you draw a face?

Tandem draw! With a partner, start at the same point, then see what you two can create together.

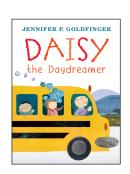

DRAWING CHALLENGES

Use the space below for your drawing challenge!

Illustrations 0 2024 Jennifer P. Goldfinger Kit may be reproduced at no charge.